Reef House Boutique Resort & Spa

The Reef House Boutique Resort & Spa is one of Australia's best boutique properties and a much loved hideaway in Queensland's tropical north village of Palm Cove. The plantation style 69-room hotel exudes a colonial charm and chic "beach-house" ambience, which feels more like spending time in a friend's ultra-comfy and airy holiday house, such is the style and level of personal service. Spacious, tranquil and relaxing, it has great character and that certain "je ne sais quoi". It is perfectly suited to travellers who enjoy the boutique style of service that both welcomes and cossets and provides an intangible quality that is distinctively "Reef House".

ACTIVITIES

Amenities are plentiful and include three swimming pools, two spa pools, multi-award winning Day Spa featuring L'itya products and an open-air signature restaurant and bar with views of the water. An easy 20 minute drive from Cairns Airport, guests can enjoy the gorgeous warm weather by simply lazing by one of the pools where there is always a quiet nook to be found. Or explore the reef, rainforest and tablelands that are on the doorstep of this tropical paradise. Ideal for weddings, special interest groups or incentive retreats.

DINING

The resort's award-winning, signature beachfront restaurant is simply known as The Reef House Restaurant. Head Chef Ashe Lewis' offers a la carte or a fabulous set menu, combining modern Australian cuisine with the very best of North Queensland's local produce, showcasing the reef's fresh seafood, as well as local tropical fruits and other regional favourites. Overlooking the palm-fringed esplanade of Palm Cove and its white sandy beach, The Reef House Restaurant, with its unsurpassed views and cool ocean breeze, provides a stunning match for Ashe Lewis' new degustation experience.
